THE CADILLAC
IN EXCURSIONS

"This promises to be the greatest summer for automobile touring that this country has ever known, if we may judge the general trend of reports from Cadillac owners," says Sales Manager E. R. Benson of the Cadillac Motor Car Company.

"During the last two weeks, we have had dozens of letters from Cadillac owners, telling us that they contemplate trips of anywhere from a week to a month, and not infrequently longer, in duration.
In addition to this, almost every Cadillac representative who has been at the factory in the past month—and I have seen nearly all of them—tells us of other owners who have started on tours, or are planning them.

"All of this is a very good thing for the states through which the tourists will pass. I say this, because in the past, the automobile has done more to forward the good roads movement than any other single agency; and as the number of tourists increases, so this influence is bound to increase.

"It points to another thing—the more general recognition of the motor car as a means of seeing the country in the most pleasant and unrestricted way. Many a touring party is independent of towns and hotels, carrying with them tents and other camping necessities and making a resting place for the night in a convenient spot by the road or on the banks of a stream.

"The East might take a lesson in long distance touring from the West, particularly California, for the motorists there seem to have gone into it with even more enthusiasm than is apparent in the East and the Middle West. Out in California, we are informed, Cadillac owners, are making up parties, some with as high as fifteen cars, for the purpose of visiting the points of interest throughout the state."

THE TEACHERS'
ASSOCIATION

powers for service. "Hawaiian Schools and Citizenship," by Dr.
Scudder, of Central Union Church, laid fitting emphasis upon the necessity for training our young people toward moral and civic responsibility. Mr. W. A. Bowen, at a special meeting for the consideration of the needs of our schools as related to possible legislative action, spoke forcefully upon "Public Interest and the Schools."

Many other features of the year's work might be dwelt upon, but the above synopsis at least indicates the forward spirit that has ever characterized the actions of the association. There are many defects that will gradually right themselves—greater solidarity of organization, more interest in the out-of-town teachers, systematic publication of addresses and papers —but these are minor flaws in an institution that represents the best interests of our public school system the crowning glory of the American commonwealth.

"Mary, for dinner I think we'll have boiled mutton with caper sauce. Are there any capers in the house?"
Mary—"No, ma'am."

the garden and cut some."—
